

La Cocina de Abuelita

Frequently asked Questions

Who prepares our meals? And how is it prepared and delivered?

All school lunches are prepared by a locally owned Mexican family business. These recipes are sourced directly from Abuelita's traditional cook book that has been passed down generation to generation. Each meal is individually packaged and tagged accordingly to ensure a prompt and precise delivery. Most importantly, it's hot and ready. Best of all, it's made with love.

How do I create an account?

Ready to try some delicious Mexican food? Simply go to our link right here <https://lacocinadeabuelita.com/account/login> Create your account and browse through our selection of plate lunches on our website.

How will my child receive their meal?

When you place an order with us, you will fill out a simple and prompt order form for your child's lunch. Make sure to fill out the designated areas such as: name, pu'uhonua teacher, grade, email, and phone number. Once the form is filled out and your order is processed you will receive a confirmation email with all the required details.

On delivery day, your child's meal will be tagged with their: name, grade, and meal choice. Have your child go to the school lobby and one of our amazing staff members will have their order ready for pick up.

When do I need to place my order by each week?

Please place any orders for you or your child the night before delivery. We will stop taking orders by 11:00 pm.
